CURRICULUM VITAE

RESEARCH AND EXPERTISE

As a researcher, educator, leader, and author, Dr. Christopher Cone maintains an emphasis in Biblical studies, philosophy, and transformative learning and leadership, appreciating the interplay between the disciplines. With respect to Biblical studies, Cone centers on hermeneutic theory, Biblical-language based exegetical method, and contextual exposition. His philosophical pursuits consider especially the mutual interdependence of theology, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, and social-political thought, and how the Bible informs each category. Cone teaches in the classroom and at scholarly meetings and conferences, and is committed to ongoing research and publication.

As an academic and institutional leader, Cone is dedicated to the continual growth and development of people at every organizational level through transformative learning, skills assessment, career-track mapping, and transformative leadership and mentoring. He advocates a VERITAS formula for leadership, involving and empowering stakeholders to maximize their potential and influence. Cone consults with academic institutions and churches to assess and improve their health.
